MRS. EMMONS IS SANE

And Capable of Managing Her Own Affairs.

A. J. SELIGMAN A PRISONER.

Arrangement of a Supposed Murderer-Sullivan's Bad Luck-Dr. Seligman and the Pope-The Fishery Dispute.

Mrs. Emmons Sane.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The jury in the Emmons lunacy trial has returned a verdict that Mrs. Emmons is sane and capable of managing her own affairs.

A BANKER IN TROUBLE.
J. A. Seligman Held a Prisoner by Montana Miners.

HILERA, Montana, Jan. 29.—The Gregory Consolidated Mining Company, of New York, working the Gregory mine, situated four miles from Helena, telegraphed to J. A. Seligman, the company's manager, to close down operations, the reason being that there was no money in the treasury. Child started for the mine with E. W. Bach, the accountant, Foreman West and Hon. Albert J. Seligman, of the firm of J. & W. Seligman & Co., bankers, of New York, to notify the men and close the mine.

The drafts for the amounts due the employees had not reached Helena. The men, fearing that they were to lose the two months' wages due them, on being notified of the company's intention, called a meeting and took charge of the mine and works.

They went in a body and notified the gentlemen named that they wanted them to attend their meeting in the morning. One hundred and fifty men walking in front and one hundred and seventy-five behind, escorted them to the meeting. Speeches were made on both sides. The men decided to hold the four gentlemen named until the money was forthcoming, and detailed eight men to guard them during the day and eight men during the night. They also voted to close every mine, and detailed men for that purpose, and the situation was quiet. They appointed a committee to inspect all telegrams and correspondence. Later in the day it was decided to allow the general manager to go East with the money, at the same time paying the accountant and holding Mr. Seligman a prisoner for security until the money was forthcoming. Seligman telegraphed his father in New York, that if

THE COMPANY HAD NOT PAID THE MEN, He would not answer for the consequences for the protection of the property of himself.

The amount involved is $75,000. J. & W. Seligman & Co., owning but a portion of the company's stock, immediately telegraphed the money to Helena for the payment of the men, and the release of the company's property and Seligman. About midnight last night Mr. Seligman was released upon a promise being sent to the men by Governor Hawser, who guaranteed the money for Seligman & Co. The men stated that the company and all parties with the utmost respect and courtesy, and protected the property of the company. There was no disposition to injure any one.

Seligman was paroled and allowed the freedom of the camp on his word of honor that he would not leave until payment could be made to the men. The men are being paid off to-day, and all hands are happy over the result of what might have been a serious affair had not the New York bankers generously stepped in.

THE HEADLESS TRUNK.
Arrangement of the Supposed Murderer at the Tomb.

New York, Jan. 29.—Unger was arraigned at the Tombs Police Court, charged with murder. He exhibited a stolid indifference, and when asked if he desired to make any statement, he simply answered and turned his head away. At the request of Inspector Hyman, Unger was remanded to police headquarters. The chief element in the case now clinging to the case is the fact that the head, without which identification will be difficult, is still missing.

Bold was born in one of the eastern provinces of Russia. He came to this country some years ago, and traveled in California and Oregon, where he engaged in business as a peddler of goods. He was arrested in July last, when he had a draft for $1,200 from some Oregon bank, which he exchanged for a German draft, and was going across the ocean to settle up some property in Germany. He was away two months, and returned in the fall, this time with a Hamburg draft for $1,200, which he had exchanged, and

THE CHAMPION'S BAD LUCK.
Sullivan's Arm Broken Again and Reset.

New York, Jan. 29.—Sullivan, the pugilist, arrived yesterday afternoon to get the best surgical opinion as to his arm. He was taken to the office of Dr. Sayer, who, after an examination of the injured member, said that it had been set with the pole down ward, instead of with his hand, the doctor, for a further chance, observed Sullivan's presumption, and placing his left hand on Sullivan's forehead, he gave a sudden wrench which broke the bones under a second blow. Sullivan, however, showed his resilience, and with a cry of pain, he sprang up, and with the exception of some fainting spells, he and other victims applied themselves to the business of boxing. Sullivan was brought back to consciousness, and his arm was set with a splint, and he was told that it would be all right four weeks hence, and will be as strong as ever.

THE INDIAN LANDS.
The Commissioner of the General Land Office has decided that the State of Colorado is not entitled to sections 16 and 36 in each township in the Ute Indian reservation for school purposes. Under the act of March 3d, 1875, it is held that these sections at the date of the grant were covered by an Indian title and could not go with the grant, and the lands on the reservation having been disposed of by treaty and not by act of Congress, no indemnity can be collected therefor. About five hundred thousand acres are involved.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.
The President of the Woman's Suffrage Association yesterday received a telegram from Kansas, stating that the Kansas Woman Suffrage bill had passed the Senate of that State by a vote of 25 to 13.

THE FISHERY DISPUTE.
England Will Maintain the Rights of the Colonists.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The subject of the dispute between the United States and Great Britain in regard to the Canadian fisheries was brought up in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. Sir James Ferguson, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office in answer to inquiries said the Government had been conferring with the Government of the United States on the question. The Canadian fisheries, he said, were valuable and the Government would maintain a policy concerning them which had been adopted by preceding Governments and would maintain the right of the Colonists. With every desire to conciliate the United States the Government was unable at present to narrate the whole course of the negotiations.
